Jan Vanderbilt Joins Board of Directors for All Saints Episcopal Day School

Carmel, CA (October 22, 2009) — Certified public accounting firm, BBR LLP announced today that partner, Jan Vanderbilt, has joined the board of directors for All Saints Episcopal Day School in Carmel Valley.

In addition to other responsibilities, Ms. Vanderbilt will serve on the board's finance committee, where her expertise in finance and accounting will be valuable as the board continues to focus on three key areas: the remodel of Coats Hall and the Early Childhood Facility, the financial aid program, and continued academic excellence.

"Jan has outstanding credentials and experience in her field, as well as with serving on other boards," said Michele Rench, Head of All Saints Day School. "She came highly recommended, she is a community-minded person with roots in the area, and she takes our mission to heart."

"All Saints has been dedicated to the development of the whole child since its inception in 1961." said Ms. Vanderbilt, "The school's value on the unique abilities of each student, and commitment to the growth of every student to his or her fullest potential is evident in the success of their alumni. I'm honored to support an organization that provides this level of excellence in education, and strives to make it accessible."

Jan has over twenty years of public accounting experience in taxation and accounting, including tax planning and consultation for individuals, small businesses, and trusts, and the preparation of individual, business, fiduciary, pension/profit sharing, and exempt organization tax returns. She also consults with small businesses and trusts on accounting and other business matters and prepares compiled and reviewed financial statements. She earned a BA in Accounting and MS in Finance with emphasis in Financial Planning at Golden Gate University.
