FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The New Healthcare and Employment Laws Affect Every Business
Tax Seminar June 10th Helps Businesses Understand New Regulations and Tax Credits of the HIRE Act and Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act

Carmel, CA (May 18, 2010) — BBR LLP Certified Public Accountants will be hosting a tax presentation Thursday, June 10, 2010 at 8:00 AM at the Clement Hotel on Cannery Row.

The new healthcare legislation affects all businesses with new deadlines, penalties, tax credits, reporting requirements, and mandates. BBR LLP Certified Public Accountants invites business owners and managers to learn the critical information needed to revise their procedures and update their healthcare plans to avoid penalties and take advantage of new tax credits. A few examples of the changes in legislation include:

- Small employer tax credit to help offset expenses
- Penalties on employers who fail to provide minimum coverage
- Changes to distributions from FSAs, HSAs and MSAs
- Payroll tax holiday on wages of qualifying employees
- Additional reporting requirements for employers, including changes to Form W-2
- Tax credit for retaining employees for 52 weeks
